CHICAGO CITY COUNCIL HOLDS RIOTOUS SESSION

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, June 23.—In a riotous session which followed a week of public clamor over the ousting of officials of the school board, the city council by a vote of 45 to 22 on reconsideration refused to confirm Mayor Thompson's school board appointees.

The judiciary committee of the city council announces it will consider impeachment proceedings against Mayor Wm. Thompson.

RED CROSS WILL CARE FOR THE FAMILIES OF OUR FIGHTING MEN

William H. Hush, the field agent for the National Red Cross, with headquarters in San Francisco, addressed the people of Tonopah at the Aldrome last night. It is to be regretted that so few were there to hear what Mr. Hush had to say about the work of this society for his address was clear, interesting and inspiring. He gave briefly an outline of the work that the Red Cross had done and told how gradually it has developed from a small band of humanitarians into a chartered instrument of the government. The Red Cross is dependent solely upon public support. It is therefore a public duty for every man, woman and child to deposit their one dollar a year with the Red Cross so that it may be available for instant relief. Who knows, it might be our own community which would next need the instant ministrations

WRECK OF THE M'GULLOCH TOLD BY ONE OF THE OFFICERS

The following extracts from a letter written to Mrs. Grace Moore by Lieutenant Glover, attached to the coast guard cutter McCulloch at the time that vessel was wrecked off the coast of California, will prove of interest to his numerous Tonopah friends.

"I have been too busy to write, so sent telegrams to let you know I was saved. Will tell you in a few words what happened where I have been since. We left here Tuesday evening and would have been home Thursday afternoon. All Tuesday night and morning we were running slow in a dense fog. A naval reserve officer was on the bridge and I was in the engine room, although I was not required to stand watch. Suddenly we heard a steamer whistle and stopped, sounding our whistle all the time. Their whistle got louder and louder and we started to back her when struck on the starboard bow almost cutting us in two. It was some jolt. The Governor backed away and we began to sink bow first. There was absolutely no excitement or confusion and the crew was wonderful. We got the first boat launched in three and one-half minutes from the time we got the signal to abandon ship, and the last one away in four and a half minutes. Every man went to his station and every man was in the boat he was supposed to be in. I was in the gig with the captain and all the boats circled around the old ship. Just before she plunged down the captain yelled "all hands at attention" and we saluted. When she plunged head first and went out of sight in a second we all gave three rousing cheers. There was a panic on the Governor until they saw our half naked crew pull the above stunt and they forgot their fear and cheered us. There was a very wealthy man on the Governor who is a personal friend of Secretary Daniels and he sent him a long telegram praising our crew to the skies. He said it was the greatest sight he ever saw and nothing had ever touched his patriotism or made him feel prouder of the United States navy than the calm, cool, brave way our men behaved. Captain Cantwell is certainly a star. He was as cool as he is when telling a story and never raised his voice louder than was necessary to give his commands. I was standing beside him and he said: "Well, Glover, we have done all we could to save her. Let's go." And we slid down the falls into the last boat. There was never a word of censure or blame for anyone. He is certainly some man. One of my men was badly hurt and I am afraid he will lose both legs. His chest is badly crushed and he is in a bad

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

Alice Joyce, who plays the part of the heroine in "The Question," which is the feature at the Butler today, has recently returned from Florida where she went on an enforced vacation. Owing to her great popularity the Vitaphone pictures was compelled to cast her in pictures as rapidly as they could be made, and the climax was reached when she played two extraordinary heavy roles in succession. Mary Ward in "Womanhood," the great patriotic spectacle, and Mary Turner in "Within the Law." In these two parts Miss Joyce attained the zenith of her artistic career and into each she put all the power of which she was possessed. When she finished "Within the Law" she was on the verge of a breakdown and was ordered to take a rest. "The Question" is the first picture she played in after her return and the benefit of her rest clearly shows in the vim with which she plays the part of Martha Wainwright. There is another feature in today's program. The first picturization of one of the many famous stage successes of Chas. Hoyt, "The Brass Monkey." Everyone is urged to see. It's a scream. Tomorrow, Kathryn Williams in her first appearance on the Paramount program, in "Redeeming Love," and Mollie King in "The Mystery of the Double Cross." Remember, "Hell Morgan's Girls" next Thursday.

LIBERTY THEATER

Today: "The Princess of the Dark" featuring Enid Bennett, the new Thomas H. Ince star, who makes her screen debut on the Triangle program in this idyllic fantasy of the Virginia mountains, written by Lancelotti. This story has for its background the sordid locale of a mining town, situated in the heart of the Blue Ridge mountains, and its principal figure is a beautiful blind girl, who conjures before her the characters of the fairy tales which have been read to her by her father, since childhood. "When Hearts Collide," one of those Triangle comedies which everyone likes.

Sunday: Robert Harron in "The Bad Boy," produced at the Triangle-Fine Arts studios. Harron has the part of a small town youth who belongs to a "gang" which makes life miserable for the town constable and most of the inhabitants. His evil associates finally get him into serious trouble. "The Telephone Belle" another Triangle comedy, which is a scream from start to finish.

GETS IN THE LEDGE ON MANHATTAN CON.

After the raid on Manhattan Con. yesterday Secretary Boak received a phone from Superintendent Mark Page stating that the drills were in hard rock and he believed the solid formation had been reached at last. Mr. Boak motored over to Manhattan and dropping into the hole after shooting took out several large samples from what appeared to be a solid mass of black quartz and brought back to Tonopah about 60 pounds, some of which was placed on exhibition this morning in the Brown brokerage office. Three samples had been assayed this afternoon at 2 o'clock when it was reported that the average was $21.

The stock opened strong in San Francisco, selling at 28 cents and declining to 25, where it closed after selling down to 25. Mr. Boak and a party of friend went over again to the mine this afternoon to get a fresh bunch of samples believing the values will improve as the cross-cut advances, as the rule of the camp has been that values improve towards the footwall.

OVER THREE FOURTHS OF MONEY IN SIGHT

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 23.—Reported contributions to the Red Cross hundred million dollar mercy fund last night reached $77,000,000, of which more than $33,000,000 had come from New York city and $44,000,000 from the remainder of the country.

Three days of the campaign period including Sunday, remain in which to raise the additional $23,000,000. Although pledges have rolled in at the rate of $15,000,000 a day this week, campaign managers expressed fear that the average might not be maintained.

Churches will take special Red Cross collections Sunday.

—and why wouldn't they say it? It certainly is the most wonderful soda we have ever seen, and probably the very best soda that can be produced today. That is the reason. That should appeal to you, and induce you to meet and treat at our fountain, now and for the balance of the summer. Any flavor you want; all the old-timers, and the newest ones.
